

Levantine Heritage Foundation dinner and talks, 19th group meeting
Royal Thames Yacht Club, London

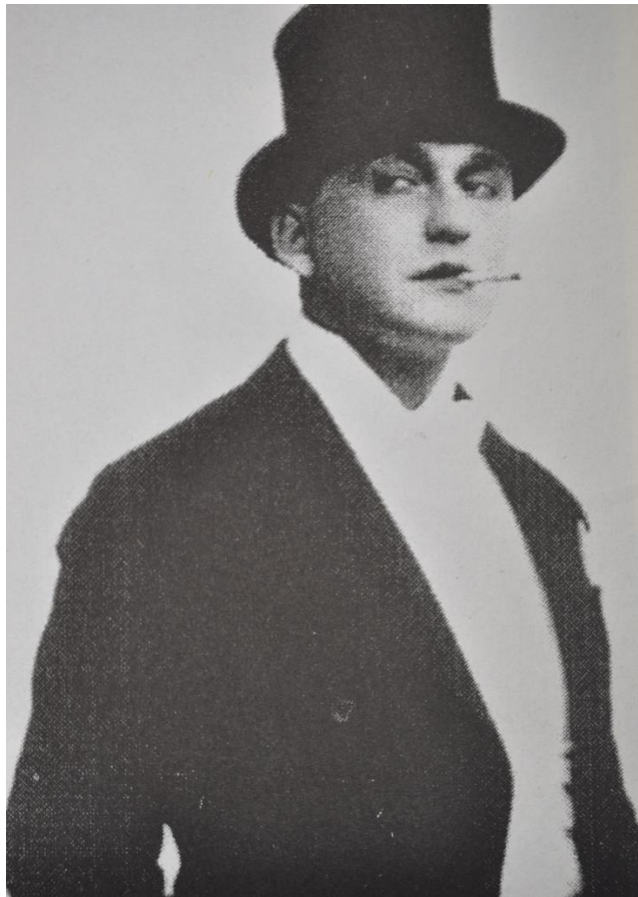

2 July 2015, 6pm – 9pm

Join us for a dinner and drinks at our traditional venue. We will update you on projects and the development of the Levantine Heritage Foundation. There will be 2 guest speakers for the evening as well. The talks themselves are free of charge. Please note gentlemen are required to wear jacket and tie.

Edward Charlton-Jones: 'White Russian Émigré Society in Constantinople, 1918-23'. Talk and photos of local cartoons.

A group of Russians in front of a charitable institute for the poor in Galata, 1930

Aleksandr Vertinsky, dressed to the nines for an evening performance

George Vassiadis: 'Sacred Spaces: Greek and Levantine Places of Worship in Alexandria and Cairo'. An illustrated lecture on the churches and synagogues built by Egypt's cosmopolitan minority groups.

Please book though Eventbrite:

The Greek Orthodox Church of the Evangelismos in Alexandria