Upcoming events

LHF London 1st Social networking and ephemera evening – 29 June 2017

The 1st Levantine Heritage Foundation social networking and bring and share family ephemera evening in London, Royal Thames Yacht Club, 6-9 pm.

Flyer: <http://www.levantineheritage.com/pdf/1st-Levantine-Heritage-Foundation-networking-gathering-flyer.pdf>

To book tickets, please register here: <https://1st-lhf-networking-evening.eventbrite.co.uk>

Please help spread the word and support us in any way you can. This is an opportunity where you, our supporters take centre stage, help create interest groups, and we help spread the word / create dedicated web pages to elicit further participation in these focus groups and hopefully some questions of the past will have answers from this networking. We are particularly keen on potential group leads to come forward and we are happy to publish the remit and / or broadcast the video talk of the aims of your dedicated group that can be wider than family investigations.

26th Levantine Heritage Foundation dinner gathering in London– 21 September 2017

Our last gathering on the 24 April 2017 was again a thoroughly enjoyable evening and we were honoured to have as the guest speaker Haydn Williams: 'Turquerie: An 18-Century European Fantasy' – flyer for this event: - video soon here on our YouTube channel:

Speaker Haydn Williams (extreme right) and guests at the 25th Levantine Heritage Foundation dinner, London, 24 April 2017.

Our last conference was in London: 'The Levant & Europe: Shipping and Trade Networks of People and Knowledge', 2-4th November 2016, London - Programme - booklet - press - gallery - videos:
We were very happy with the outcome, some of the presentations will soon feature on the website and we would like to thank again our sponsors and volunteers that made this event possible.

Requests

Joining us, supporting us, sponsorship

Levantine Heritage Foundation is reliant on membership subscriptions, donations and sponsorship and our work is mainly done through volunteers and site contributors. Our talks in London are free and associated networking activities such as the post-talk dinners are priced to break even to make them as affordable as possible given the convenience of a central London location. Major events, such as the upcoming Athens 2018 conference and other planned events which need detailed preparation, cannot be financed by ticket sales alone. We do have a small number of commercial sponsors and supporters to whom we are very grateful and we seek further partnerships and commercial sponsors. We have a number of package levels for this sponsorship and if you would like to discuss these opportunities further please contact our Chairman Quentin Compton-Bishop on [chairman\[at\]levantineheritage.com](mailto:chairman[at]levantineheritage.com) and thanks again! Further info:

Membership of the LHF is set at £20 a year and there is a discount for a 5 year purchase, and the links to pay are on this page of our website - <http://www.levantineheritage.com/join-us.html>

Current research

Calling our friends for exchange of information and potential networking

Zeynep Cebeci Suvari (interview), one of our trustees, is conducting a research on the Italian title deeds from Istanbul between the years 1870-1910. She has built a database for 1100 title deed records and if you have a particular name, you are looking for, you can contact her at [zeynep\[at\]levantineheritage.com](mailto:zeynep[at]levantineheritage.com)

Contributor Mehmet Yüce has spent a good part of his life to study the history of football in Turkey, from its humble beginnings from the small pool of Levantines enjoying this sport to the country as it gradually trickled to the wider communities of Istanbul and Izmir and beyond. He has published 4 books on this subject and his final book is scheduled to be published hopefully next year. He has made much use of the resources on the Levantine Heritage website, but would like to be able to connect with descendants who may have memorabilia or photographs to further illuminate this story. The key individuals who helped establish football in Turkey were Harry Edwin Pears and James Edward La Fontaine. Also of significance were Dupont Costominos, Aleko Kaliya, Arthur Whittall, Richard La Fontaine, Yorgo Stelianidis, Yanni Vassiliadis, Edward La Fontaine and Clark Comber, Mr Highton, Horace Armitage, Wilhelm Kohlhammer and Emil & Joseph Oberle. He will be grateful if any readers could assist in connecting him with descendants who may have extra information via: [mhmtyc\[at\]gmail.com](mailto:mhmtyc[at]gmail.com)

Recently our member and site contributor Frances Clegg independently secured a modest grant to pursue a research project close to her heart. Her family (Hughes) resided in the Levant in the early 20th century and were in the region till the 1930s, based in the neighbourhood of Bornova. Old documentation which she has inherited, and which provides addresses of houses, has proved problematic as virtually all street names have been altered, sometimes more than once. She hopes to work with local researchers to create a cross-reference table to match old and new street names which will also benefit other descendants, as domestic addresses were often noted in church burial records etc. This project will also partly assist in the envisaged 'Levantine map of Bornova' project which Mark Giraud has generously committed himself to. Frances will be grateful for the supply of old addresses through personal records, letters etc. via [frances.clegg\[at\]btinternet.com](mailto:frances.clegg[at]btinternet.com)
